Deeds.

These deeds refer to the property at the northwest corner of the road intersection where the road to Greenville goes off to the right from the Denver-Schoenecks road. At present (1975) it is owned by B. Russell Drumm.

1. John Bucher and wife to John Showalter. 3 acres and 3 perches. Dated, 23 May 1811.

2. John Showalter and wife (Christinna) to Susanna Eberly, 3 acres and 3 perches. Dated 1 April 1829. (The transf was to Susannah only, no husband is mentioned. One record says he died in 1816, leaving her with 10 children.)

3. Jacob Bucher to Susannah Eberly, 11 perches. Dated 27 March 1835.

4. Susannah Eberly, widow, to Casiah Eberly, wid of the late David Eberly, 3 acres and 14 perches. Dated 23 February 1857. (Deed Book I Vol. 42 p 562.)

5. David Eberly, administrator of the estate of Cassandra Eberly, 3 acres and 14 perches to David Leisey. Dated 30 March 1863. (Deed Book I Vol. 42 p 563.)

Susannah Bear, daughter of Abraham Bear and granddaughter of Michael Bar, a very early settler in Buchittal.* She married David Eberly.

One of their children, David Eberly, married Cassandra (Casiah) Ream. Henry Ream Eberly, one of the children of David and Cassiah Eberly, married Anna Leininger Ebling on Dec. 17, 1861. They lived with his widowed mother during their first years of marriage on the above property. They said that Indians would stop in for food from time to time. Henry and Anna Eberly were great grandparents of Mr. Russell Weber.

Reference: "Eberly Family History" by Paul C. Bennetch, Doug

* The present Denver, Lancaster Co., was called Buchittal (also Buchittown) from 1735 to about 1863; then Union Station from 1863 to about 1878; and Denver after that.